MICHAEL BACON AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

1. MICHAEL<sup>1</sup> BACON, born probably in County Suffolk, England, came to America in 1640, and was one of the early settlers of Dedham, Mass. Tradition says he held the office of captain of a company of yeomanry in County Suffolk.* According to Brown's History of Bedford, Mass. (appendix, page 2), he went from England to the North of Ireland about 1633, seven years previous to his coming to New England. The following is taken from "Dedham Records, Town and Selectmen," Vol. III., page 68: [26 May, 1640.] "Agreed vpon that the Towne of Dedham shall enterteynе m<sup>r</sup> Samuell Cooke together wth his estate And also m<sup>r</sup> Smith & m<sup>r</sup> Bacon all from Ireland & afford to them such accomodaçons of vpland & medowe as their estates shall Requier."

From a record made the following month (ibid, page 69), it would appear that the wife of Mr. Bacon preceded him in Dedham. He was one of the signers of the church covenant of Dedham. In 1644, he granted land to the town for one of the highways. His wife Alice died April 2, 1648, and he died the same month, April 18, 1648. His will, dated April 14, 1648, mentions all his children, except Alice, who died the previous month. Inventory, April 20, 1649, amounted to £54. 15. 04. (See REGISTER, Vol. 7, pages 230-1.)

His children, born probably in England, were:

2. i. MICHAEL<sup>2</sup>; Charlestown, 1640, Woburn, 1641, Billerica, about 1678; d. July 4, 1688.
3. ii. DANIEL; Woburn, 1640, Bridgewater, 1664, Cambridge Village (now Newton), about 1669; freeman, May 26, 1647; d. Sept. 7, 1691.
4. iii. JOHN; Dedham; freeman, 1647; d. June 17, 1683.

- v. SARAH, m. April 14, 1648, Anthony Hubbard of Dedham. She d. 1652.

2. MICHAEL<sup>2</sup> BACON (Michael<sup>1</sup>), born probably in England, came to Dedham in 1640, with his father. He was of Charlestown, Dec. 18, 1640, where he subscribed to "Town Orders" for the then projected town of Woburn, of which he shortly after became one of its original inhabitants.

Michael Bacon, of Woburn, bought of Roger Shaw, in 1648, a farm in the northwesterly part of Cambridge (now Bedford), including "all the meadow adjoining to the great swamp near the east corner of Concord bounds, that falls in Cambridge bounds." The Shawshin River runs from this "great swamp," on which Mr. Bacon is said to have erected, before 1675, a mill which was very recently, if it is not now, standing. He was chosen, April 13, 1644, surveyor of highways for the town of Woburn. In a mortgage recorded June 8, 1675, he is alluded to as a citizen of Billerica. In August, 1675, the town of Billerica, when providing defense against the Indians in King Philip's War, assigned Michael Bacon to garrison "No. 10," under command of Timothy Brooks. He married first, Mary ——, who died Aug. 26, 1655; married second, Oct. 26, 1655, Mary Richardson, who died May 19, 1670; and married third, Nov. 28, 1670, Mary Noyes. He died July 4, 1683.

3. DANIEL<sup>2</sup> BACON (Michael<sup>1</sup>), born probably in England, came to Dedham in 1640, with his father; was made freeman, May 26, 1647; and was one of the original projectors of the settlement at Woburn, 1640. Daniel was early of Bridgewater, and owned a purchase right there, and the farm where Timothy Reed, Esq., lately lived; all of which he sold to his "nephew Michael Bacon, Jr., of Billerica," who sold it, in 1685, to John Kingman of Weymouth. He was one of the jury for laying out the highways in 1664, and is mentioned again in 1668. In this latter year he purchased a house and six acres of land near Angier's corner, and about this time he probably went to Cambridge. He also purchased several parcels of land in Cambridge Village (now Newton) and Watertown, portions of which were afterwards conveyed to Oakes Angier, General William Hull, and others. On a part of one of these parcels was erected the Nonantum House. He was recorded at Newton in 1669.

In 1669, William Clements, Jr., conveyed to Daniel Bacon, for £60, 25 acres of land located partly in Newton and partly in Watertown. On this tract Isaac and John, his sons, settled, John's part being within the bounds of Watertown.

At Bridgewater, he married Mary Reed, daughter of Thomas Reed of Colchester, County Essex, England. He died intestate, Sept. 7, 1691, in Newton. She died Oct. 4, 1691. His sons Daniel and Jacob settled his estate, the inventory of which amounted to £143. 17s. 6d.

four Acres of Meadow Lying in flowle Meadow in Dorchester; all woodlands & swamps granted me by the town of Dedham, excepting that Swampe that Lye one the North [of] Charles River." He was frequently appointed on committees for clearing lands and laying out highways, and is recorded as among the selectmen, 1660-1; was a surveyor and commissioner, and one of the signers of the petition of the town of Dedham against the Indians of Natick, sent to the Governor and Assistants and Deputies assembled in General Court at Boston, May 7, 1662. (Mass. Archives, XXX., 112.) He was a member of Captain Timothy Dwight's company, in King Philip's War, stationed at the garrison in Wrentham in 1676. He left no will. His wife Rebecca, son John, and son-in-law Nathaniel Kingsbury, were appointed administrators of his estate. There is no record of division of the property, but in the inventory "lands and rights in Wrentham" are mentioned. He remained in Dedham until his death, June 17, 1683. He married, December 17, 1651, Rebecca Hall of Dedham, who died October 27, 1694. Until recently, descendants of John enjoyed part of the ancestral property.

He is recognized by his father in a deed dated Oct. 4, 1666, as his "loving son, Michael Bacon, Jun., of Billerica, shoemaker." Michael<sup>3</sup> purchased the Rev. Mr. Mitchell's farm of 500 acres for £200, in July, 1682. The farm was a grant by Cambridge to their minister, in 1652. It was situated on the Shawshin River, and included the mill, and was known for many years as the "Bacon homestead."

The families of Bacon prominent in the history of Bedford have almost all descended from Michael<sup>3</sup>. The name has been prominent in the territory comprising the town, for more than two hundred years. The "Bacon house," still standing, is thought to have been built by Michael<sup>3</sup> in the latter part of the 17th century. Six later generations of the family, in five of which the name Benjamin appears, have been born or lived in that house. Among other traits of the family, a notable one has been their musical talent.
